

Non-partisan 2008 PRESIDENTIAL PEACE VOTER GUIDE  Where they stand on the issues	Democratic Candidates as of March 12, 2008		Republican Candidates as of March 12, 2008
	 Sen. Hillary Clinton	 Sen. Barack Obama	 Sen. John McCain	 Rep. Ron Paul
Opposed the invasion of Iraq	No	Yes	No	Yes
Advocates a specific timetable for withdrawing U.S. troops from Iraq	Unclear	Yes	No	Yes
Will retain military force in Iraq for the indefinite future	Yes	Unclear	Yes	No
Has committed to direct negotiations with Iran	No	Yes	No	Yes
Supported President Bush's provocative designation of the Iranian Revolutionary Guard as a terrorist group	Yes	No	Unclear	N/A (no House vote)
Advocates keeping the option of a military attack on Iran	Yes	Yes	Yes	No
Advocates the worldwide abolition of nuclear weapons	No	Yes	No	No
Will cut military spending in order to fund human and environmental needs	No	No	No	Yes

This non-partisan Voter Guide is based on voting records and public statements. It is provided as a public service and is not an endorsement of any candidate or political party. Readers are urged to reproduce it and distribute it widely. Special thanks to National Peace Action for the information in this guide.

*This non-partisan Peace Voter Guide was produced by the Coalition for Peace Action
 NC Peace Action, PO Box 10384 , Raleigh , NC , 27605
 billtowepa@jono.com www.ncpeaceaction.org*

